

TYLER ALTERIO

1 Rockland Terrace - Natick, MA • (508)-314-9756 • Tyler.Alterio@student.uml.edu

Education

University of Massachusetts Lowell - Anticipated Graduation Fall 2016

B.S. Electrical Engineering and B.S. Computer Science

GPA: 3.4 Dean's List All Semesters

Professional Work Experience

Philips Color Kinetics • Burlington, MA

June 2014 to January 2015

Firmware Engineer Co-Op

- Practical use of Git version control and tools. In addition to Github management.
 - Implemented new features in firmware of PIC based devices with MPLAB IDE.
 - Created command-line utility in Qt framework to interface with fixtures via UDP.
 - Worked with team of 8 software engineers, utilizing Agile Scrum workflow.
-

Skills

Languages

- General: C, C++
- Object-Oriented: Java
- Scripting: Python, Perl
- Shell: Bash, PowerShell
- Functional: Clojure
- Numerical: MATLAB

Software

- Operating Systems: Windows (up to 10), Linux (Debian-based)
 - IDEs: Visual Studio, Qt Creator, IntelliJ, PyCharm
 - Version Control: Git
 - Hardware: Arduino, Raspberry Pi
-

Relevant Course Work

- Intro to Engineering 2: MATLAB application and use of BASIC STAMP microcontrollers.
 - Computing 4: Adoption of OpenCV computer vision library and Qt libraries for C++.
 - Electronics 1: Application of operational amplifiers, diodes, MOSFETs, and BJTs.
 - Microprocessor System Design: Program design in x86 and PIC assembly.
-