

TYLER ALTERIO

(508)-314-9756 • tyalt1@gmail.com • GitHub ID: tyalt1

Education

University of Massachusetts Lowell - Summer 2016

B.S. Electrical Engineering and B.S. Computer Science GPA: 3.486 • Dean's List All Semesters

Professional Work Experience

Plexxi, Inc. • Nashua, NH
Software Engineer

June 2016 to Present

- Implemented Bidirectional Forwarding Detection protocol in Erlang for agile networking.
- Reorganization of legacy code into OTP (Erlang) applications, using test driven development.

University of Massachusetts • Lowell, MA
Research Assistant

August 2015 to December 2015

- Experimented with P4, an open-source domain-specific network description language.
- Develop method to compile P4 behavioral model into CUDA implementation.

Philips Color Kinetics • Burlington, MA
Firmware Engineer Co-Op

June 2014 to January 2015

- Practical use of Git version control and tools. In addition to Github management.
 - Implemented new features in firmware of PIC based devices with MPLAB IDE.
 - Created command-line utility in Qt framework to interface with fixtures via UDP.
 - Worked with team of 8 software engineers, utilizing Agile Scrum workflow.
-

Skills

Languages

- Systems: C, C++
- Object-Oriented: Java
- Scripting: Python, Perl
- Shell: Bash, PowerShell
- Functional: Clojure, Erlang, Elixir
- Numerical: MATLAB

Software and Tools

- Operating Systems: Windows, OSX, Linux (Debian)
 - IDEs: Visual Studio, Qt Creator, IntelliJ, PyCharm
 - Version Control: Git
 - Virtualization: VirtualBox, VMWare, Docker
 - Hardware: Arduino, Raspberry Pi
 - Lab Equipment: Oscilloscope, Multimeter, Soldering
-